

With such a high unemployment rate, Congress needs to pass legislation to help get Americans, including Hoosiers, back to work. To date, the House has passed multiple jobs bills that are currently stalled in the Senate. Click here to see where these bills are in the legislative process.